

Quite the storyteller

The Reporter | Jonathan Stinson

David Joe Miller captivates nearly 300 students at Corley Elementary School in Boaz on Tuesday. Miller is a member of the National Storytelling Network and performs shows across the country. The Marshall County Retired and Senior Volunteer Program set up Miller's story time visit. RSVP brings in a storyteller each year to celebrate the end of the completion of the group's reading buddy program.